INSPECTOR GENERAL OF PRISONS IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

he Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

In forwarding herewith a copy of letter No.2622, dated the 6th February 1933 received from the Superintendent, Bangalore Central Jail, I have the honour to request that, for reasons stated therein, sanction of Government to the change proposed in the supply of uniforms to the Chief Warder, and the other members of the Warder Staff at a total cost of Rs.14/- per yea to be met from the grant annually alloted to the jail under th head "Miscellaneous Services and Supplys" may kindly be obta ed and communicated to me at an early date.

I have the honour to b
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

S. Subba Rao

Inspector General of Prisc

Letter No.2622, dated the 6th February 1933 from the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore to the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

SUBJECT:- Uniform and equipment of Warders changes proposed for.

I have the honour to bring to your kind notice that the warder-officers of this jail present a very poor appearance notwithstanding the Military Training they had had to some extent undoubtedly due to the plain uniform in which they are required to be clad. The question of providing them with uniforms similar to those provided for officers of equal rank in the Military and Police Departments has been engaging my attention for some time past and I had brought at one time that the rules contained either in the Madras Jail Code or in the Mysore Police Manual might with advantage be brought into force in this jail with modifications suited to Departmental conditions but considering the expenditure involved and the present need for diverting all the resources of the jail towards the maintenance of jail buildings, I have given it up.

I have however to submit to you the following proposals pending the submission of more elaborate ones as funds permit.

Rule 120 M.JM. The head dress of the Indian Chief Warder.	The shamala is required to be worn on the left side.

The word "left" is perhaps a misprint for "right". No uniformed officer wears shamala on the left. I propose that it may be corrected into right.

(b) Same rule:- The shamla should be of yellow and khaki stripes Such shamlas are now being worn by the rank and file of the Mysore Infantry and the Police - vide para (e) Section IV (1) page 21 Mysore Police Manual Vol.II.

I propose that the Chief Warder should wear a khaki turban tied to a khaki dulla covered with gold lace to a depth of 3 inches. The ends of the turban are to be trimmed with 5 stripes of gold lace each stripe $\frac{3}{4}$ inch wide on yellow ground with interspaces of one inch having 5 gold lace lines 3 of which will be in the middle and the other two on either edge of the lace stripe.

(c) Same rule - The yellow silk cord should be worn on the shoulders. This cord does not blend with khaki and might be dispenced with. The shoulder flaps are enough.

(d) Same rule - The Mysore Insignia in silver should be wo on the front of the turban. They might be worn on either side of the collar, as in the case of Police Inspectors and Sub Inspectors.

Rule 121. The uniform for Deputy and Assistant Chief Warders should be the same as for Chief Warder without shoul cords.

It might be the same but the width of the gold lace of turban which shall be tied to a plain khaki kulla shall be ½ and ¼" respectively. Shoulder flaps may be provided instea of shoulder cords.

Rule 122.(Head Warders of all grades shall wear yello shamlas. They may be provided with shamlas of yellow and khaki stripes.

Rule 127 (a) The members of the warder establishment sh be provided with boots or sandals once a year.

I propose that the Chief Warder may in addition be provide with a pair of gaiters once in 5 years.

The extra cost involved in these proposals is as follows:-

Laced Khaki kulla to the Chief Warder cost Rs.6/- once in 2 years or Rs.3/- annually.

Laced turban asldescribed above.... cost Rs.6/- once in 2 years or Rs.3/- annually.

Laced turbans to the Deputy and Assistant Chief Warders @ Rs.5/- each Rs.10/- once in 2 years or Rs.5/ annually.

One pair of gaiters to the Chief Warder Rs.15/- once in 5 years of Rs.3/- annually.

The yellow and khaki striped shamla proposed for the Head Warders does not make much difference in the cost of their head dress as now supplied to them.

Total.....Rs.14/- per year and may be met from the grant that is being annually allotted to this jail under the head"Miscellaneous services and supplies" Uniform and Equip-

I request that if the above proposals appear to you, as to me, to be quite modest and at the same time would enable the warder officers to present more decent and smarter appearance, early sanction of Government may be obtained and communicated to me to bring them into force from the next year (1933-34). I will suggest suitable amendments to the existing rules on the subject on receipt of sanction to them.
